

ABET CURRICULUM VITAE

1. Name: Irma Graciela Martínez Cantú

Academic Rank: Professor, full time.

2. Degrees: Master in Education with specialization in Applied Linguistics 1998, ITESM
B.A., 1983 Communication Science, Universidad Regiomontana

3. Years of Service: 26 years (January 1992 - present)
1992 – 1998 Part time professor, Humanities Dept. ITESM. Campus Monterrey.
1999 – 2000 Instructor Professor, Humanities Dept. ITESM. Campus Monterrey.
2001 –2011 Assistant Professor, Modern Languages Dept. ITESM. Campus Monterrey.
2012 – Present Associate Professor, Regional Department of Languages, Campus Monterrey

4. Other Related Experience:

1986 - 1991 Communications Department head at Grupo Cydsa (Club Cima)

5. Honors and Awards:

- Award for ‘solidary professor’ 2015
- “Assessment Focused on Knowledge and Fulfillment of Itesm’s Mission” Speaker at Congress on Educational Innovation, ITESM System, 2007
- Lecturer in the event: English in the New Millenium Government of Nuevo Leon 2003
- Best Professor, Virtual University Course in Education, 2002

6. Professional Development

- Certification in new teaching-learning models, Levels A and B
- Certification as Facilitator in Collaborative Learning Techniques (courses at UBC, Canada and UT, Austin)
- Assessment and Evaluation Course, University of Minnesota
- Training for Facilitators in new educational models
- Workshop and courses on Sustainable Development
- Workshops on educational research
- Academy of Education on Ethics (attended several courses and workshops national and internationally)