

ABOUT GUADALAJARA

It is the second largest city in the country. Guadalajara is known worldwide for its traditional hospitality, with a wide variety of cultural and recreational attractions and delicious cuisine. But most of all, it is known for its people. More than just a city, it represents Mexican culture with its folklore, the renowned Mariachi, handcrafts, tequila and the national sport, 'Charrería'. Few cities can offer such a variety of interesting things to see and do, involving the visitors in a cultural, historical and legendary atmosphere.

ABOUT THE CAMPUS

Campus Guadalajara opened its doors in August 1991, on an area of almost forty hectares located to the west of the metropolitan area, in the municipality of Zapopan. Thus, it was able to extend its services and offer high school, undergraduate, graduate and extension programmes. We have the unique E-sports space: E-sports Arena Borregos, a space dedicated to immersion in virtual reality, where electronic sports are practiced.
