ABOUT MONTERREY

Monterrey is a business oriented city located in the northeast state of Nuevo Leon, just 3 hours away from the Texas border. With modern infrastructure and services, you are going to find a lot to learn and do, with world class museums, restaurants, concert halls, night clubs, parks and more. The city has a population of more than 1 million people, however together with the metropolitan area they add up to more than 4 million.

Monterrey is typically known as "la ciudad de las montañas" (City of the Mountains), because it is surrounded by the Sierra Madre Oriental. This makes Monterrey a special place for people who loves nature and enjoy outdoor activities such as climbing, mountain biking, and camping.

TEMPERATURE

- Monterrey has a semi-arid climate.
- During summer the average high in August is 35 °C (95 °F) and the average low is 23 °C (73 °F). Winters are quite moderate, the average high in January is 21 °C (70 °F), and the average low is 8 °C (46 °F).
